Royal Mail

Due to the size of Royal Mail's operation, it takes 12 months for each Royal Mail site to be visited; yet the company has made a real commitment to its internal growth of Payroll Giving. Continual effort is required on Royal Mail's part to ensure sign up levels are sustained. The number of Royal Mail Payroll Giving donors has now risen from 45,017 to 49,262.

Through Payroll Giving the Royal Mail Group has maximised the success of its corporate charity relationship with Help The Hospices, and is now in third place in Charities Trust's ranking of charities that benefit from payroll donations.
